The Million Dollar Advocates Forum is pleased to recognize member Michael P. McDonald of Lancaster, Pennsylvania for his continued success in major cases. Mr. McDonald recently won a binding arbitration award for his clients in the amount of $1,300,000 in a Pennsylvania uninsured motorist case (Michael Waltz and Melissa Waltz v. Travelers, 2009).

The Million Dollar Advocates Forum is recognized as one of the most prestigious groups of trial lawyers in the United States. Membership is limited to attorneys who have won million and multi-million dollar verdicts, awards and settlements. The organization was founded in 1993 and there are approximately 4000 members located throughout the country. Fewer than 1% of U.S. lawyers are members. Forum membership acknowledges excellence in advocacy, and provides members with a national network of experienced colleagues for professional referral and information exchange in major cases. Members of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum must have acted as principal counsel in at least one case in which their client has received a verdict, award or settlement in the amount of one million dollars or more.

Members of the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum must be Life Members of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and must have acted as principal counsel in at least one case which has resulted in a multi-million dollar verdict, award or settlement. Mr. McDonald is a life member of both the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum.

Michael P. McDonald is a graduate of Temple University School of Law and specializes in civil trial practice, including: personal injury and wrongful death, automobile, highway and trucking accidents, products liability, premises liability, insurance litigation and workers' compensation law.
