NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

The privacy of your medical information is important to us. We understand that your medical information is personal and we are committed to protecting it. We create a record of the care and services you receive at our organization. We need this record to provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice will tell you about the ways we may use and share medical information about you. We also describe your rights and certain duties we have regarding the use and disclosure of medical information.

OUR LEGAL DUTY

Law Requires us to:

1. Keep your medical information private.
2. Give you this notice describing our legal duties, privacy practices, and your rights regarding your medical information.
3. Follow the terms of the current notice.

We Have the Right to:

1. Change our privacy practices and the terms of this notice at any time, provided that the changes are permitted by law.
2. Make the changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our notice effective for all medical information that we keep, including information previously created or received before the changes.

Notice of Change to Privacy Practices:

1. Before we make an important change in our privacy practices, we will change this notice and make the new notice available upon request.

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION

The following section describes different ways that we use and disclose medical information. Not every use or disclosure will be listed. However, we have listed all the different ways we are permitted to use and disclose medical information. We will not use or disclose your medical information for any purpose not listed below, without your specific written authorization. Any specific written authorization you provide may be revoked at any time by writing to us.

FOR TREATMENT: We may use medical information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. We may disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, or other people who are taking care of you. We may also share medical information about you to your other health care providers to assist them in treating you.

FOR PAYMENT: We may use and disclose your medical information for payment purposes. A bill may be sent to you or a third-party payer. The information on or accompanying the bill may include your medical information.

FOR HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS: We may use and disclose your medical information to our health care operations to support the business activities of our practice. We may use medical information about you to review and evaluate our treatment and services or to evaluate our staff's performance while caring for you.

Notification: We may use and disclose medical information to notify or help notify: a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care. We will share information about your location, general condition, or death. If you are present, we will get your permission if possible before we share, or give you the opportunity to refuse permission. In case of emergency, and if you are not able to give or refuse permission, we will share only the health information that is directly necessary for your health care, according to our professional judgment. We will also use our professional judgment to make decisions in your best interest about allowing someone to pick up medicine, medical supplies, x-ray or medical information about you.

ADDITIONAL USES AND DISCLOSURES:

As required by law. We may use and disclose your health information when required to by federal, state, or local law.

Public Health Activities: As required by law, we may disclose your medical information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability. We may also, when we are authorized by law to do so, notify a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease or otherwise be at risk of contracting or spreading a disease or condition.

Worker's Compensation: We may disclose health information when authorized or necessary to comply with laws relating to workers compensation or other similar programs.

YOUR INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS

You Have a Right to:

1. Look at or get copies of certain parts of your medical information. You may request that we provide copies in a format other than photocopies. We will use the format you request unless it is not practical for us to do so. You must make your request in writing. If you request copies, we may charge you for the costs of copying, mailing, or other supplies used in fulfilling your request.
2. Receive a list of all the times we or our business associates shared your medical information for purposes other than treatment, payment, and health care operations and other specified exceptions. You must request in writing and must state the time period for the requested information. You may not request information for any dates prior to April 14, 2003 (the compliance date for the federal regulation) nor for a period of time greater than six years. You are entitled to one list per year without charge. There is a charge for additional lists within the 12 month period.
3. Request that we place additional restrictions on our use or disclosure of your medical information. You may request we do not disclose information about a prior treatment to a family member or friend who may be involved in your care or payment for care. Your request must be made in writing. We are not required to agree to these additional restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by our agreement (except in the case of an emergency).
4. Request that we communicate with you about your medical information by different means or to different locations. You may request that we call you only at your work number, or by mail at a special address. Your request must be in writing.
5. Request that we change certain parts of your medical information. We may deny your request if we did not create the information you want changed or for certain other reasons. If we deny your request, we will provide written explanation. You may respond with a statement of disagreement that will be added to the information you wanted changed. If we accept your request to change the information, we will make reasonable efforts to tell others, including people you name, of the change and to include the changes in any future sharing of that information.

Complaints: If you believe we may have violated your privacy rights, you may file a complaint in writing within 180 days of the suspected violation. You may file this directly with the Secretary of Health and Human Services, or with the Privacy Officer c/o William C. Cohen, D.O., 2501 E. Chapman Ave., Ste 401, Orange, Ca. 92869

PRIVACY PRACTICES ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By signing this form, you acknowledge receipt of the Notice of Privacy Practices of William C. Cohen, D.O., F.A.O.C.O.

Our Notice of Privacy Practices provides information about how we may use and disclose your protected health information.

Our Notice of Privacy Practices is subject to change. If we change our notice, you may obtain a copy of the revised notice by contacting our Privacy Officer at 714 628-1313.

I have received the Notice of Privacy Practices, and I have reviewed it.
