About the Program:

Offering both Plaintiff and Defense Perspectives

There have been many significant developments and decisions affecting medical malpractice law during the past year. If you prepare and try medical malpractice cases, this information-packed program will familiarize you with key cases that may change the way you handle your next trial. As an attendee, you'll find out how to deal with complex issues that often arise, and pick up practical advice that will help you obtain the optimum result for your clients.

The 20th annual presentation of this timely program is designed for trial attorneys at every level of experience who handle medical malpractice cases or complex personal injury litigation. Hundreds of New Jersey's medical malpractice attorneys, personal injury lawyers, insurance professionals and general practitioners have regularly relied upon this annual update to keep up with recent developments and cutting-edge issues. If you have not attended before, you'll discover that this program is a quick and easy way to catch up – in just one morning – on all of the critical new developments you need to know.

PLUS, a review of every published medial malpractice case decided in the past year.
