Edward S. Snyder

“The moment you initially engage in an exploratory discussion with Ed, you experience a quality of seasoned professionalism and expertise that is not present in other matrimonial firms in NJ. Ed is THE ATTORNEY you want to chose who will assist you during your possibly most difficult time of your life. 1. his communication is clear and focused (calm with you, authoritative and direct with adversary & court officials) 2. His support staff is competent, consistent & responsive 3. Snyder & Sarno's reputation is stellar (which I didnt realize the value of this point until much later in my proceedings) and will assist you in your dealings 4. Ed's goal is to move swiftly, but with precision so you and your family can move forward with your lives quickly while ensuring your case is comprehensive and binding. In addition to Ed's knowledge of your rights, Ed has actually written much of the case law that directs the courts activity and this is huge when dealing with the legal system. i was fortunate to choose Ed and his firm, Snyder & Sarno as my legal representation. My only reservation is that I worked with another firm prior to Ed's and I wish I engaged with Ed earlier. Once Ed was involved, my case moved quickly and was brought to closure. On a personal note, it helps to have a caring human being advocating for you when you are in a difficult situation such as a contentious divorce. I always felt that Ed cared about myself and my children's well being and this is not a characteristic always present in other NJ Top attorneys. Ed is respected in Court, brings calm to chaotic situations and keeps you focused when its difficult to see the end game. If you are fortunate enough to work with Ed, you'll never feel alone.”

*“I am a very experienced financial professional and I have been involved over the years with many excellent lawyers.
Ed is very special lawyer! He is highly knowledgeable about NJ matrimonial law. He is savvy and sophisticated in negotiation and he is extremely careful about important details. Those characteristics are not what makes Ed so special. Ed is a wise counselor and a very good counter to his sometimes emotional and silly client. Ed negotiated a great result for me and helped me keep my sanity. For that I will always be grateful.”*

“Ed is a sharp, intelligent, dependable, experienced and very capable attorney. Ed assisted me in revising a marriage settlement issue from years back having to do with a trust fund designated to go to my children when I pass away. My X defied my request causing litigation. The end result was that my children received their trust before the time designated in the original divorce agreement thanks to Ed.” – former client 8/2014

“I am a lawyer myself, which doesn't always make for the best client relationship! However, Ed was very good at guiding me through an emotionally difficult divorce. I trusted his judgment and relied on him heavily to lead me through all the steps of the divorce. He was very resourceful as well. I still occasionally ask him questions and he always takes the time to respond. He was patient with me and addressed all of my concerns. He also seemed more concerned about doing a good job in representing me than in billing me -- something I appreciated immensely.” –former client 8/2014

“Ed and his firm handled my divorce case in a professional, knowledgeable manner- offering sound advise, and always seemed to be on the money with their advise and guidance. he also had a lot of respect from his peers which definitely worked to my advantage.” –former client 8/2014

“I cannot recommend Ed Snyder too highly. He was superb. He took me through my difficult divorce, and was an excellent lawyer, and wonderful support. I have recommended him to many other people, and always speak very positively about him, and his law office. I was recommended, myself, to use Ed Snyder because of his expertise in family law, and am delighted I did so. This is a VERY enthusiastic recommendation” –former client 8/2014

“I had a difficult time as most people do and I have referred Ed, with whom I maintain an acquaintance, even as recently has 18 months ago.” –former client 5/2014

“We met Ed through a reference from a colleague, after some unsuccessful or rather unpleasant experiences with several previous lawyers. In our first meeting, he listened to us, got to know us, and told us that he saw a chance with the case. He won our confidence from the very beginning, and took our case to the most positive outcome we could have ever imagined!! He was always kind, truthful, compassionate, professional, trustworthy, sincere, and friendly. He is very knowledgeable and experienced, very well respected in his community, and you just know that when he says something it is because he believes so. It is almost that this is not only a job for him, but helping justice served is his passion to help people. He has a great acuity in foreseeing potential outcomes, and the path to get there. Once he is set and determined for an outcome, there is nothing to distract him. And even better, he never allows you to lose your faith either. He earned our trust, our respect, and our network of references. He is the best there is !! We hope he would be able to transfer his legacy to many lawyers!” –former client 2/2014

“I was referred to Ed many years ago when I was divorcing and had the good sense to listen to the advice that he gave me at that time. Over the years, I have not hesitated to pass his name along to anyone who was in need of his services. As busy as he is, Ed always had time to discuss my case and to make sure I felt at ease with how things were progressing. He and his staff were always prepared, responsive and professional. I recently needed his counsel on a minor issue and he was just as helpful and responsive as I remembered. He was able to grasp the situation quickly and resolve it in a matter of a few days. It may not be the best of circumstances that cause you to call him, but if you need these kind of services, Ed is the best there is.” –former client 7/2013

“He was patient, he listened to my needs and suggestions, he kept my stress level at bay. In the end the outcome was favorable. His associate, Scott Danaher, worked well with him -- no information lost in translation among them.” –former client 6/2013

“Ed is an outstanding NJ family lawyer. He has a deep and broad knowledge of the system, the rules, the laws, the judges and the opposing attorneys. Ed is very sensible and is able to candidly cut the emotion out of the situation and bring realistic proposals and solutions to his clients. I have been the beneficiary of Ed's skills and years of experience during a very 'heated' divorce case in which he was able to see the 'path forward' and navigate me in that direction for positive results. I highly recommend his services!” – former client 6/2010

"Ed Snyder has been my lawyer for over three years, in what has been a very difficult and contentious divorce. Ed and his staff are outstanding. They are totally dedicated to my case, and were willing to work all hours of the day and night to ensure the best possible outcome. He is experienced, skillful and extremely well connected to the legal system. Bottom line, he gets the job done." –former client 2010

"I have known Ed Snyder in a professional capacity for over 10 years, and have referred many clients to him, all of whom have been very pleased with the results Ed obtained for them. Five years ago I had the pleasure of retaining Ed on my own behalf and, to say the least, Ed generated the same results for me that he had for my clients (and as an attorney, I am extremely critical). Ed is diligent, accessible, responsive, smart, strategic, practical and efficient. I would unequivocally recommend him (and continue to do so for my clients)." –former client 2010

He thoroughly understands the law and the court system. He got the best results for me and was ALWAYS available when I needed to reach him. It was a quality I truly appreciated!!!! I would like to thank him for the great job he did in moving towards getting my case finalized. His professionalism is greatly appreciated. Please be assured that I would recommend Ed to my friends, family and associates.” –former client 2/2010

"I was divorced 5 years ago and I have been fighting court battles with my ex since then. I have worked with at least 7 different lawyers, all of which my ex either out-smarted or simply steam rolled over. Unfortunately, the end result of each suit were staggering legal fees with little else. The latest suit would have financially crushed me and my children. I could no longer afford to have a "good" lawyer - I needed the best! A prominent NYC lawyer recommended Ed Snyder and now I finally understand the difference between a good and GREAT lawyer! Ed took on my very wealthy Wall Street ex and got me everything I needed, not by playing my ex's game but by knowing all the games and how people play them. Ed knows the law, what the judge is looking for, how to negotiate, he is confident with good reason to be, I can go on. As far as I am concerned I found the best family law lawyer there is in Ed Snyder."

"Ed is an amazing lawyer!! My case was fairly complicated. Somehow he managed to be sensitive to me, while standing extremely strong on my behalf. With the position I was in, I could have been easily manipulated and Ed did not let that happen. In the end, I got everything I needed and my kids and I are secure for a very long time. Ed and I remain friends and keep in touch to this day. I have and will continue to highly recommend Ed Snyder."—former client 2/2010
