Joseph V. Maceri

"I called Mr. Maceri to consult about my spouse filing for divorce, he had me come in. He advised me to take certain action, which helped greatly, and when it came time to be in court, he was able to get my children back to me. His positive attitude and excellent advice brought positive results to my case. He was able to make the truth shine through, and getting all the false charges dropped. He is an excellent lawyer, honest, honorable, sincere, he has great ethics and a great track record. His only interest is in the best outcome for his client. This is how I knew he was the right person for this case. In one of our conversations, he expressed this idea to me. It is better to help a couple resolve their issues, if possible, then help them destroy their marriage. This trait alone is paramount in an individual's personality, especially when it comes to dealing with such sensitive issues. His kindness and understanding, and availability goes above and beyond the call of duty. If you need a family lawyer, you want Joseph Maceri esq. In your corner and on your side. God Bless." –former client 4/2017

“I consider myself fortunate to have had Joe represent me during my time spent in New Jersey’s family law system. There was never a court appearance where I did not walk out thinking how glad I was that I had Joe on my side as opposed to his adversary on the case.. as he was always more prepared and his manner of speaking in front of the judge was head and shoulders above the attorney we were up against. Joe is personable, knew the ins and outs of the court system and his advice was always spot on. Most importantly though, Joe always made me feel like I was not just another file sitting on his desk but he actually cared about me and my children and in today’s day and age, I don’t think you can ask for much more from an attorney. I can’t recommend Joe enough and I can honestly say that the results he was able to get on my behalf changed mine and my children’s future and for that I will be forever grateful.” –former client 5/ 2015
