

Pin the Mouth on the Monster

Color the monster and mouths, then cut out each mouth and hang the monster's face on a wall. Have each player choose a mouth and put a small piece of tape on the back of it. One at a time, have each player close their eyes, gently spin them around and point them toward the wall so they can stick the mouth on the monster. The player who is closest to having the mouth in the right position wins!

