NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.
THE PRIVACY OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION IS IMPORTANT TO US.

OUR LEGAL DUTY

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your health information. We are also required to give you this Notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties, and your rights concerning your health information. We must follow the privacy practices that are described in this Notice while it is in effect. This Notice takes effect April 14, 2003, and will remain in effect until we replace it.

We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this Notice at any time, provided such changes are permitted by applicable law. We reserve the right to make the changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our notice effective for all health information that we maintain, including health information we created or received before we made the changes. Before we make a significant change in our privacy practices, we will change this Notice and make the new Notice available upon request.

You may request a copy of our Notice at any time. For more information about our privacy practices, or for additional copies of this Notice please contact us using the information listed at the end of this Notice.

USES OF DISCLOSURES OF HEALTH INFORMATION

We use and disclose health information about you for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations. For example:

Treatment: We may use or disclose your health information to a physician or other healthcare provider providing treatment to you.

Payment: We may use or disclose your health information to obtain payment for services we provide to you.

Healthcare Operation: We may use and disclose your health information for treatment, payment or healthcare operations; you may give us written authorization to use your health information or to disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give us authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time. Your revocation will not effect. Unless you give us a written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your health information for any reason except those described in this Notice.

To Your Family and Friends: We must disclose your health information to you, as described in the Patient Rights section of this Notice. We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend or other person to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare or with payment for your healthcare, but only if you agree that we may do so.

Person Involved in Care: We may use and disclose your health information to notify, or assist in the notification of (including identifying family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care), your location, your general condition, or death. If you are present, then prior to use or disclosure of your health information, we will provide you with an opportunity to object to such uses or disclosures. In the event of your incapacity or emergency circumstances, we will disclose health information used on a determination using our professional judgment disclosing only health information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare. We will also use our professional judgment and our experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences of your best interest in allowing a person to pick up prescriptions, medical supplies, x-rays, or other similar terms of health information.

Marketing Health-Related Services: We will not use your health information for marketing communications without your written authorization.

Required by Law: We may use or disclose your information when we are required to do so by law.

Uses or Neglect: We may disclose your health information appropriately if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes. We may disclose your health information to the extent necessary to avert a serious threat to your health or safety or the health of safety of others.

National Security: We may disclose to military authorities the health information of Armed Forces personnel under certain circumstances. We may disclose to authorized federal officials health information required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities. We may disclose to correctional institution or law enforcement official having lawful custody of protected health information of inmate.

Financial Guidelines

Thank you for choosing our practice for all your dental care needs. We are committed to providing you with the highest quality dental care using only the best materials and technology available in the market today. We are also committed to providing you with the up-to-date information and educational tools so that you may fully participate in maintaining optimum oral health. These financial guidelines are intended to facilitate excellent service to you while minimizing our administrative costs.

All charges you incur are your responsibility regardless of your insurance coverage. We must emphasize that as your dental care provider, our relationship is with you, our patient. Not with your insurance company. Our office is not a party to that contract.

As a courtesy to you, we will help you process all your insurance claims. We will estimate your portion due at the time of service to the best of our knowledge. We will then bill your insurance and any unpaid balance will be your responsibility as well as keeping us updated on current insurance information.

Payment is due at the time services are provided. Our office accepts cash, personal checks, Master Card, Visa, American Express, and Discover. Outside financing is available through Citi Bank upon request and approval.

Regarding divorce and billing problems: This office is not a party to any divorce decrees. We may bill the responsible party as a courtesy. Please understand that our legal right is to bill the responsible party as a courtesy. Please understand that our legal right is to bill the party (or guardian) that is present for treatment. Any collection fees, court costs, reasonable attorney fees, or returned check fees are the responsibility of the adult person(s) named on the account.

If you have any questions regarding our financial guidelines, please ask. We are committed to providing you with the most positive experience in dental care.

Missed appointment policy

We want to thank you for choosing us as your health care provider. In order to give you and all our patients the best possible care, we request that you review our policy regarding missed appointments.

A missed appointment is when you fail to show up for an allotted appointment time, without a phone call or cancellation notice of at least 24-hours.

Please remember that we have reserved appointment times especially for you. Therefore, we request at least a 24-hour notice in order to reschedule your appointment. This will enable us to offer your cancelled time to other patients.

If you are unable to keep your scheduled appointment time, please call our office at least 24-hours in advance in order to avoid a missed appointment fee. This charge is not covered by insurance. Your phone call is critical in helping us provide continuous care to all of our valued patients.

If you fail to give us a notice of your missed appointment, you will be charged a $75 missed appointment fee.
